COMMUNITY

Koch companies and employees provide time, talent, and contributions to add value in our communities. We focus on programs that enable people to improve their lives, find fulfillment and realize their full potential. Here are some examples of Koch's community support in Mississippi:

In 2014, Georgia-Pacific donated $25,000 to the town of Monticello to support improvements to Mac Dale Memorial Park – a place where many local youth learn how to play baseball and softball.

Georgia-Pacific has an ongoing relationship with the Lawrence County Hospital and provided a $10,000 grant for the hospital's Community Health Assessment News program, which will include heart, lung and stroke screenings for local residents.

For the past 20 years, Georgia-Pacific employees have taught local elementary school students about river ecology through Discovery Day — a long-standing program developed by Leaf River Cellulose in New Augusta.

SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

Koch companies are committed to operating businesses in a manner that protects the health and safety of employees and communities, as well as the environment, by reducing waste and increasing efficiency. Here are some examples in Mississippi:

Georgia-Pacific in New Augusta holds two Wildlife Habitat Council certifications for successful wildlife habitat stewardship and environmental education programming.

Georgia-Pacific has six STAR-certified sites in the state that are in OSHA's Voluntary Protection Program for outstanding safety performance.
