COMMUNITY

Koch companies and employees provide time, talent, and contributions to add value in our communities. We focus on programs that enable people to improve their lives, find fulfillment and realize their full potential. Here are some examples of Koch's community support in Illinois:

In 2015, Molex announced a two-year sponsorship of the Bank of America Chicago Marathon. Many employees will be involved as runners, volunteers, and spectators.

Flint Hills Resources' Joliet plant site has received Corporate Lands for Learning and Wildlife at Work certifications from Wildlife Habitat Council for successful wildlife habitat management and environmental education initiatives.

Molex is a long-time supporter of the Morton Arboretum in Lisle, which is dedicated to the planting and conservation of trees and plant life from around the world.

SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

Koch companies are committed to operating businesses in a manner that protects the health and safety of employees and communities, as well as the environment, by reducing waste and increasing efficiency. Here are some examples in Illinois:

In 2014, Molex received the Blue Sky award from EMC for the company's commitment to social and environmental responsibility.

Flint Hills Resources in Joliet and Peru have received numerous safety awards from the American Fuel & Petrochemical Manufacturers including the Achievement in Years Award for having one or more years without an employee lost workday case.

In 2014, Molex received the Innovation for Growth award from Phillips Lighting for the company's excellent global customer service, quality and sustainability leadership initiatives.
