COMMUNITY

Koch companies and employees provide time, talent, and contributions to add value in our communities. We focus on programs that enable people to improve their lives, find fulfillment and realize their full potential. Here are some examples of Koch's community support in Alabama:

In 2014, Georgia-Pacific's Naheola Mill in Pennington donated $20,000 to Choctaw County High School in Butler to help put digital tools into the hands of local teachers and students.

The Georgia-Pacific Bucket Brigade™ program awards grants to fire departments in its facility communities, including those in Alabama. Launched in 2006, the program has contributed more than $1.5 million to departments across the U.S.

SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

Koch companies are committed to operating businesses in a manner that protects the health and safety of employees and communities, as well as the environment, by reducing waste and increasing efficiency. Here are some examples in Alabama:

Georgia-Pacific's corrugated facility in Huntsville received the Perfect Plant award in 2014 from the Fibre Box Association for operating with zero safety incidents.

Georgia-Pacific's sawmill facility in Belk is STAR-certified in OSHA's Voluntary Protection Programs for outstanding safety performance.
