COMMUNITY

Koch companies and employees provide time, talent, and contributions to add value in our communities. We focus on programs that enable people to improve their lives, find fulfillment and realize their full potential. Here are some examples of Koch's community support in South Carolina:

INVISTA Camden employees in Lugoff are proud supporters of the United Way of Kershaw County. The company annually sponsors the Springdale Sunrise 5K to benefit the health initiatives of the United Way, and employee volunteers participate in the "Be-a-Bunny" program, which provides goodie baskets to children and seniors.

The Georgia-Pacific Bucket Brigade™ program awards grants to fire departments in its facility communities, including those in South Carolina. Launched in 2006, the program has contributed more than $1.5 million to departments across the U.S.

SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENT

Koch companies are committed to operating businesses in a manner that protects the health and safety of employees and communities, as well as the environment, by reducing waste and increasing efficiency. Here are some examples in South Carolina:

Since 1992, INVISTA Camden in Lugoff has held a "Wildlife at Work" certification by the Wildlife Habitat Council, which provides a structure for corporate-driven efforts to create, conserve and restore wildlife habitats on corporate lands.

Georgia-Pacific in Prosperity is STAR-certified in OSHA's Voluntary Protection Programs for outstanding safety performance.
